

Preliminary Storm Survey

June 11, 2016 Tornado in Baker, MT

A tornado touched down on Lake Baker at approximately 654 pm MDT June 11, 2016. The tornado moved northeast into a Baker subdivision before lifting by 704pm at about the intersection of Wyoming Ave and 8th Street East covering about a half mile in length.

EF-3 intensity wind damage occurred in a one block area, just northeast of the intersection of Texas Ave and 6th Street East, just northeast of Lake Baker.

Approximately 6 homes were destroyed and trees reduced to stumps in the EF-3 damage area.

In total, it's estimated that upwards of 50 homes experienced some type of damage. Several injuries were reported but none of those were life threatening.

